

CCBC Purpose Statement

We exist to introduce people to Jesus Christ
and to unite them with His family,
to help them grow to Christlike maturity
and commit themselves to ministry
in order to glorify God.

Prayer Requests & Thanksgivings

You can call the pastor or deacons at any time of the day or night to initiate the prayer wheel in our church family. Praying for others is the greatest responsibility and gift we can give to one another.

Random Acts of Kindness

It is truly a win/win/win situation. The person you are being kind to benefits through your help. You feel good for having helped someone and the world is a better place through your kindness.

Never underestimate the impact of a single act of kindness. I still remember, after many years, the time someone stopped and helped me after my car had a flat tire.

Also, it is important to carry out your acts of kindness without expecting anything back.

This week look for opportunities to give a random act of kindness to someone else. They don't have to be hurting. They just might need a cheerful smile to make their day.

Do you wish you could find a way to be really free from a hurt, habit or hang up that is bugging you?

Don't miss Life's Healing Choices

It's an eight week series that looks at the Beatitudes in sermons and small group Bible studies
Make it a priority in October

Small Groups

Small groups should function just like a family. Kent's small group is his family in our church. It began when we studied the 40 Days of Purpose and has continued since that time.

Will you consider joining a small group Bible study during our study of the Beatitudes? Make belonging to a small group a priority during this study.

A note of thanks.....

To ABW: Thank you all for your help and generosity during our time of sorrow. Your thoughts, prayers and help with the potluck were so wonderful.
The Newirths, Brown and Pirtle Families

CCBC: I am writing to express my gratitude in receiving the Richard Harding Memorial Scholarship. I am honored to be a recipient and use it to attend a Christian school, Northwest Nazarene University. Thank you for all your support and prayers. Thank you. God bless Emma Roemhildt
