

CCBC Purpose Statement

We exist to introduce people to Jesus Christ and to unite them with His family, to help them grow to Christlike maturity and commit themselves to ministry in order to glorify God.

Prayer Requests & Thanksgivings

You can call the pastor or deacons at any time of the day or night to initiate the prayer wheel in our church family. Praying for others is a great responsibility and a gift we can give to one another.

I read this passage this week and wanted to share it with you. It was written by Steve May

ANOTHER RESOLUTION      1 CORINTHIANS 2:2

It's not too late to add one more resolution to your New Year to-do list, here's one: Paul said to the Corinthians, "For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified...My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power."

1 Corinthians 2:2

Here's a good resolution to apply to your life this year: Put Jesus front and center. Let him dominate all you do. Put him above all else -- before you wander off into politics and social issues and pet peeves, make sure that Christ is proclaimed above all.

I like the way Eugene Peterson paraphrased Paul's words. "I deliberately kept it plain and simple: first Jesus and who he is; then Jesus and what he did -- Jesus crucified."

Let's put Christ first. Who he is, what he did, and how he can make a difference in the lives of all who respond to his gift of salvation.

God bless you this New Year as you put Christ first.

John

Special thanks to Chris Dunlap and Deb Eckley for un-decorating the church AND cleaning this week. We really appreciate your attention to detail.

Random Acts of Kindness

KindNote: This is a special way to give a random act of kindness. Send a note to someone. When they open it up, people smile as they realize they have been remembered. The note can be anonymous.

Count up the many acts of kindness you experience each day and you will discover lots of ideas that you can pass on.

How to commit a random act of kindness. Relax and be observant.

Make people smile by giving kindness and politeness when it is least expected.
